CAROL A. ADAMS

Carol Ann Adams, age 78, of Brodhead, passed away unexpectedly on Oct. 1, 2021, while in Sieverville, Tennessee.

Carol was born on April 23, 1943, in Milwaukee, the daughter of Joseph and Marionna (Wagner) Wolf. She married John Lee Adams Sr. on June 20, 1964, in Milwaukee. They celebrated over 57 years together.

Carol worked for many years at their family floral shop in Glendale, Wisconsin, with her parents before her retirement. She enjoyed walking, taking pictures, sewing, attending musical performances and especially cherishing spending time with her family. Carol is survived by her husband, John Adams Sr.; two children, John L. Jr. (Sandy) Adams and Mary Irene Heins; four grandchildren, Daryl (Jackie) Kirchen, Amanda Heins, Rachael (Zac) Baldwin and Sebastian (McKayla) Adams; three great-grandchildren, Theo Kirchen, McKenna Baldwin and Daniel Baldwin; a sister, Virginia Klotz; and a myriad adopted kids and grandkids.

Carol was preceded in death by her parents.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be directed to the family in her memory.

A visitation and memorial service were held Saturday, Oct. 9, at Faith Community Church in Janesville. Pastor Gary Shields officiated.

The DL Newcomer Funeral Home in Brodhead assisted the family. For more information, go online to www.dlnewcomerfuneralhome.com or call 608-897-2484.

JOANNE M. BOYLE LEE

Joanne Marie Boyle Lee passed away following a long illness on Oct. 2, 2021, at 73.

She was born Dec. 15, 1947, in Dodgeville, a daughter of Lorraine Meylor Boyle and Joseph Michael Boyle; sister of Mary Boyle of Sunnyvale, California, Tess (Richard) Keller of Daphne, Alabama, Nick (Penni Secore) Boyle, of Asheville, North Carolina, and Patty (Gar Gibson) Boyle, of Madison, Wisconsin. Her children are Aimee Scalzo and Justin (Aileen O'Hearn) Lee of Scottsdale, Arizona. Joanne's grandchildren are Stella Mueller and Wyatt Lee. She also is survived by brother-in-law Richard (Kathie Boyle) Yaffe, of Studio City, California, and beloved stepmother, Betty Webster Storlie

Boyle, of Beloit, Wisconsin.

She was baptized at St. Michael's Church in Calamine, Wisconsin, married at St. Rose's Catholic Church, in Brodhead and most recently attended St. Jude's Catholic Church in Beloit. She also attended Our Lady of Assumption (Beloit) where she was at school until 1961 when the family moved to Brodhead.

Joanne graduated from Brodhead High School in 1966, became a licensed beautician and then worked at Schwieger Furniture in the Whitewater area, helping to support them while her husband, Gary Lee, got his bachelor's degree. They moved to Leland, Illinois, for his work and Joanne had an at-home day care for a few years. She then worked at DeKalb Genetics as a bookkeeper for 15 years. Aimee and Justin were born in Sandwich, Illinois, completing the family. In 1999, her marriage over, she moved to Beloit where she worked for Kerry Industries for 15 years. She obtained her bachelor's degree in business administration in 2006 at age 59. What a celebration that was!

Joanne was a second mother to her five younger siblings and a strong willed, in-charge person who loved her charges deeply. In recent years, she spent many Thanksgivings in California with family and came to the rescue when as adults we were sick or needed comforting, even if it meant flying to Arizona or the West Coast, driving to Alabama, or local trips.

Joanne was active as a volunteer throughout her life, joining groups that provided community support. She was very active in Leland Junior Women's Club, the Red Hats, Intermediate Women in Beloit and Beloit Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution. She had a loyal band of friends, including the Fab Five from Leland and her longtime friends, Sandra Chamberlin and Sheryl Miller, whom she met in junior high at Brodhead; and Susie Scott. She and Sandra traveled to many domestic destinations. She was a member of Knitting, Wine, and Chocolate, played mahjong and belonged to a book club. Ruth Jaeger was her friend, neighbor and sometime traveling companion. They visited many quilt stores in the U.S. and Canada.

She loved traveling to see family in Arizona, California, Alabama and Darlington, where her family had roots going back to the 1840s. She also visited Ireland, many national parks, Hawaii, Alaska, New York, New England, Alabama, Florida, Georgia and many other places in the U.S.

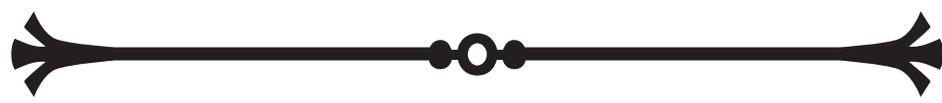

Her parents, Joseph and Lorraine Meylor Boyle; sister, Kathie Boyle; and former husband, Gary Lee; preceded her in death.

The family would like to thank Dr. Steven Yang, Beloit, and home health care company, Bright Star. We are also grateful to the nursing staff and physicians at Froedtert Hospital in Milwaukee for their capable and caring medical care for more than two months. Our cousin Lori Fisher was especially helpful during this difficult time.

A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 23, 2021, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church (104 E. Harriet St., Darlington) with the Rev. Luke Syse officiating. Burial will be in Holy Rosary Cemetery.

The Erickson Funeral Home in Darlington is serving the family. Online condolences may be expressed to the family at www.ericksonfuneralhome.com.

In lieu of flowers, donations can go to Beloit Public Library; St. Jude's Parish, Beloit; Caritas, Beloit; or Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington.

Heading to college?

Officials offer tips for filing FAFSA

The application period is now open for students to file the Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA) for the academic year that begins in fall 2022.

“The FAFSA, filed annually, is the gateway to virtually all federal, state and institutional financial aid, including scholarships, grants, work study and federal student loans, and many private scholarship providers require it as well,” according to a news release. “For those looking to enroll in college during the 2022-’23 academic year, it’s important to submit the FAFSA as soon as possible and take time to understand the various deadlines that apply.”

“School deadlines can be as early as February or March.

Gov. Tony Evers, the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions and the Wisconsin Higher Educational Aids Board offer the following tips to help students and families complete the FAFSA:

- Do your homework before you file.

Both students and parents should gather Social Security numbers, driver’s license numbers, bank statements, 2020 tax returns, and W-2 forms. Having this information ready before you begin the application can help expedite the process and alleviate stress.

- Create a Federal Student Aid ID.

Before filling out the FAFSA, create a Federal Student Aid ID (FSA ID), which serves as an electronic signature. Parents and students can find a link to obtain a FSA ID through the U.S. Department of Education’s office of Federal Student Aid website. To create a unique ID, applicants will need their Social Security number, date of birth and their name as it appears on official documents.

- Complete the FAFSA as soon as possible.

Some financial aid is awarded on a first-come, first-served basis, or from programs with limited funds. The earlier students and families complete the FAFSA, the better their chances are to be in line for that aid.

The FAFSA form is available on the myStudentAid mobile app, available in the Apple App Store or on Google Play, as well as at fafsa.gov.

- Sync your tax return.

The IRS Data Retrieval Tool will electronically transfer your 2020 federal tax return information onto your FAFSA form, expediting the process and simplifying the application.

• Be mindful of potential errors. Mistakes on the FAFSA could delay an application, meaning students and families could possibly lose out on some financial aid. Entering incorrect Social Security or driver's license numbers or forgetting to sign the application are some of the most common errors.

• File the special circumstances form if COVID-19 impacted your finances.

There's an opportunity after filing the FAFSA to submit a special circumstances form, specifically if a student's or parent's income has changed as a result of COVID-19 or other events. The form can be requested from college financial aid offices.

"Completing the FAFSA is your ticket to being considered for financial aid, including aid you don't have to repay, like scholarships and grants," said DFI Secretary Kathy Blumenfeld. "Every year families nervously await and often postpone filling out the FAFSA. Some even skip it entirely because they think it's a waste of time and only a fast track to federal student loans.

"However, the FAFSA package also includes college scholarships and grants. Not filling it out can result in families losing money that could have helped them pay for college. I encourage all Wisconsin students and families to submit a FAFSA whether they think they will qualify for aid or not."

Students and families with questions about the FAFSA can contact Federal Student Aid at studentaid.gov or the Federal Student Aid Information Center, which provides support on behalf of the U.S. Department of Education. FSAIC is available at 1-800-433-3243, or 1-800-730-8913 for applicants who are hearing-impaired.
