Argyle meat-processing co-op targets mobile services in southern Wisconsin

MeatSmith Co-op, a new producer- and worker-owned meat-processing cooperative, is seeking members to raise capital to open a state-inspected processing facility in Argyle.

The cooperative will include mobile, on-farm harvest services for small- and mid-size livestock producers.

MeatSmith Co-op's board has been developing a business model for 2 years to open the first cooperative in the state to offer a full-service slaughter and meat processing option for livestock producers.

This month, the board is inviting small- and medium-scale producers of cattle, hogs, sheep and goats in southwestern Wisconsin to sign up to become members.

Co-op members will gain access to preferential scheduling, lower processing fees and profit sharing, as well as a voice in developing cooperative policies and choosing its leadership, according to a cooperative press release.

As members of MeatSmith

Co-op, producers are joining with other livestock farmers in the region who want to have more choice in how their animals are harvested and processed, the release stated.

The $500 membership fee represents owner equity in the cooperative.

Together, cooperative members' fees will facilitate purchase of the 6,500-square-foot former grocery store in Argyle, which will be converted into a meat processing facility.

Information on becoming a member can be found at www.meatSmithcoop.com

Based on a needs-assessment survey of southern Wisconsin farmers, the co-op's business plan focuses on harvesting and processing livestock for small- and medium-scale producers in Dane, Grant, Green, Iowa, Lafayette and Rock counties.

While producer and worker members will determine the future of the cooperative, plans are in place to begin operations as a custom-exempt facility in late 2022, with animals harvested on-farm by existing mobile slaughter unit operators.

Renovations of the facility are projected for spring or summer 2023. Once they are completed, the co-op intends to become a state-inspected processing facility and begin operating a state-inspected mobile slaughter unit to harvest animals on-farm.

The eventual goal is to participate in the Cooperative Interstate Shipment program, making it possible for producers and the co-op to sell meat products throughout the United States.

Additionally, the co-op hopes to incorporate a retail storefront offering local meat and non-meat products to the public, provide order-fulfillment services to producer members and offer a group marketing program.

A seven-person board representing farmers, butchers, educators and community members is leading the cooperative. Together, they represent decades of experience building sustainable, responsible farming and processing practices.

The board has received guidance from the Wisconsin Farmers Union, the Food Finance Institute, the UW Law & Entrepreneurship Clinic, and the UW Center for Cooperatives to develop its organizational documents and business plan.

As the first local meat-processing cooperative in Wisconsin, the co-op received a grant in May 2022 from Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation to examine the feasibility of replicating its business model elsewhere in Wisconsin.

MeatSmith has been working to acquire and outfit the former grocery store in Argyle, which will become a nose-to-tail meat processing facility with future plans to operate a state-inspected mobile slaughter unit.

Field days help new farmers dig into techniques

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP), with the University of Wisconsin-Madison Division of Extension and FairShare CSA Coalition, invite Wisconsin farmers to attend multiple field days in the 2022 growing season.

These field days will provide information on a variety of production and management techniques, according to a DATCP news release.

Techniques will range from small-scale weed control practices to mushroom growing, rice cultivation techniques, and utilizing high tunnel production to grow crops that require unique soil or growing conditions.

The field days will take place on the following dates:

- High Tunnel Field Day Tours, Eau Claire Area, July 12.
- Mushroom Production Field Day and Farm Tour, Peshtigo, July 14.
- Organic Weed Control Intensive Field Day, Athens, July 24.
- Cover Crop Field Day, Verona, July 27.
- High Tunnel Field Day Tours, Wausau Area, Aug. 2.
- Hands-on Food Safety Field Day, Wausau, Aug. 15.
- Rice Production Field Day, Mequon, Sept. 14.

These events are designed for beginning or underserved growers who manage small to mid-scale diversified farm operations, stated Morgan Cavitt in the DATCP release.

The field days will connect growers with the information and resources to increase the competitiveness of Wisconsin's specialty crop industry, Cavitt stated.

Hmong translation services are available upon request at most events. For more information, including how to register, visit datcp.wi.gov/Pages/AgDevelopment/SpecialtyCropEvents.aspx, or contact DATCP Organic and Specialty Crop Specialist Andrew Bernhardt at 608-572-0512 or andrew.bernhardt@wisconsin.gov.

Specialty Crop Support

DATCP staff help specialty crop producers overcome challenges, increase profitability, and grow by promoting and administering U.S. Department of Agriculture Specialty Crop Block Grants for Wisconsin.

Program staff collaborate with stakeholders and utilize grant funding to coordinate field days and workshops, create educational materials, and provide one-on-one technical assistance to producers. For more information on specialty crop support, visit DATCP's specialty crops webpage.

Rock deputy crashes vehicle during response to road rage shooting report

Rock deputy, tow truck driver hurt in crash

A Rock County Sheriff's deputy was hospitalized after a crash with a tow truck while responding to a road rage shooting report from Town of Beloit police on Thursday, June 23.

Sheriff's Captain Mark Thompson said Friday that the deputy's injuries were not life-threatening. The two occupants of the tow truck were treated and released Thursday night.

The crash remained under Wisconsin State Patrol investigation late last week, Thompson stated in a press release.

A road rage incident that started a little earlier the same afternoon in the City of Beloit precipitated the shooting in the Town of Beloit, the Rock deputy's response and resulting accident.

A Rock County Sheriff's vehicle crashed with a tow truck and the deputy was hospitalized after trying to respond to a road rage shooting report in the Town of Beloit last Thursday afternoon.

A Town of Beloit Police press release last week indicated their officers responded to a report of a disturbance in the 3000 block of South Park Avenue just before 3:10 p.m.

By the time officers arrived, the suspects had left the area.

The victim of the road rage shooting was taken to a local hospital for treatment. Police on Friday were still not providing details about the shooting victim's injuries.

In the release, police said they had identified the suspects involved; they said there was no danger to the public.

The Rock County Sheriff's Office deputies were responding in emergency mode to assist the Town of Beloit after receiving the shooting report at approximately 3:50 p.m.

Just minutes later, while en route to the shooting, the Rock deputy was involved in the crash with a tow truck at E L T Townline Road and South Prairie Avenue in Turtle Township.

Wisconsin was reported this spring to be among the five highest state road rage shooting rates in the nation.

Across all 50 states, an Everytown for Gun Safety Support Fund report released in April found that road-rage shootings killed or injured an average of 44 people a month in 2021.

The organization's report indicated this shooting rate was double the pre-pandemic average of 22 people killed or wounded in such incidents each month in 2019, according to the Wall Street Journal. There were 728 road-rage incidents with a gun last year — the highest in the 6 years that the gun-control advocacy group has recorded incidents, the Journal stated.

From 2016 to 2019, around one-third of road-rage incidents involving a gun resulted in injury or death. That shooting rate is under 300 people for each of those years.

In 2021, it was nearly two-thirds, or more than 500 people.

The study found that the states with the highest rates of road-rage shootings were New Mexico, Texas, Arizona, Wisconsin, and Tennessee.

Obituary

LINDA A. CHURCH-FLYNN

Linda A. Church-Flynn, 72, of Evansville, passed away on Thursday, June 23, 2022, at her home.

She was born on Oct. 21, 1949, at Stoughton Hospital, the daughter of Lois R. Flynn Thompson and William B. Flynn, Jr.

She graduated from Brodhead High School in 1968, and she graduated from Madison Accredited Cosmetology School in 1969.

Linda was married in 1970 to Keith Church, and they had two sons together, Bret K. Church and Bradley W. Church. They owned Stone Tavern.

Family and friends remember her as an awesome mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother; a loving, caring, thoughtful, respectful person, who always helped everyone and considered everyone as her family.

She got divorced in 1977 and never remarried. She said "Once was enough!"

In 1974, she worked for her mom, Lois Peterson, and step-father, Pete Peterson. She worked with her mom for 22 years and then purchased the family business in 1997. She worked at Pete's for 48 years total. She also owned Lins Main Street Salon and also had Flinnagans Bar and Grill in Brodhead for nine years.

Her fondest memories were getting her driver's license, graduating from high school, having two sons, opening her own salon and two bars, getting to be with grandchildren and great-grandchildren, having a great-grandchild, Savannah, born on her birthday, Thanksgiving to give out food and be open so everyone had a place to go, Christmas for the children, working with her mom for 22 years, then working with her sons in the family business, helping everyone, trying to give family everything they needed and just being with them, Colin Reese most loyal customer of Pete's and getting a tattoo of Pete's on his leg.

She is preceded in death by her father and mother, step-father ther Pete Peterson, son Bradley W. Church, grandson William B. Church, daughter-in-law Rhonda Church, niece Stacey Flynn, ex-husband Keith Church, in-laws Roy and Lee Church.

She is survived by Gary Topp, significant other for many years; Bret (Sheri) Church and their children, Joshua (Katlyn), and kids, Ethan, Lara, Bryce (Claudia) Blake, Phil (Alicia) Hoops and kids, Westly (Aimee) Hoops and kids, Jordan Steig, Jason (Lisa) Sonnentag, Justin (Toni) Sonnentag, LeAnn Alf and kids, Kelly (Ryan) Luedy and kids, daughter-in-law: Robin Milbrandt and her children: Breanna (Will) Cottrell, Rochelle (Matt Fisher) Church, Jon (Alison), Becky, James, and Jesse Cothard; great-grandchildren, Bentley Church, Savannah Cottrell, Hallie Cottrell, Marley Church; step-son, Tony Wickersham; brother, Steve Flynn and his children, Jenny (Nick) Oppedahl, Julie Flynn and kids; sister, Shirley (Victor Beggs) Sauer and her children, Todd (Lisa) Sauer, Matt Sauer, Eric Sauer and their children, Aunt Queenie and her children, Larry (Sheri) and Terry (Jill); cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

If we forgot to name anyone, just know everyone who came to Pete's, you're all family and she loved all of you very much.

She wanted everyone to be happy, party, have fun, not to be sad. She loved all of you forever, and her famous line was, "Thank you for coming to Pete's Inn, the fun spot."

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday, July 1, at the Ward-Hurtley Funeral Home.

Burial will follow at St. Patrick Catholic Cemetery in Albany. Visitation will be held on Friday at the funeral home from 11 a.m. until the start of services. www.wardhurtley.com

Milwaukee County Zoo reduces admission on July 4th

MILWAUKEE COUNTY ZOO

You can celebrate the Fourth of July at the Milwaukee County Zoo with $4 admission for all visitors on Monday, July 4, according to a zoo press release. The standard parking fee of $15 will still apply with admission.

Zoo staff are encouraging visitors this year to check out the Harbor Seal habitat to meet the new female pup, born on May 24 to mom Cossette and dad Ringo.

This birth marks the first pup for Cossette and the sixth for Ringo. Cossette and the pup are in the outdoor habitat most of the time and viewable to guests, but they do have the option of venturing inside if they choose.

Commonly called awkward "crawling seals," they use their hind flippers to maneuver underwater only; these flippers can't be rotated forward and so aren't good for locomotion on land.

Their front flippers are much more versatile though. Harbor seals also take naps with their bodies nearly submerged in water, exposing just the tips of their noses to the air.

Zoo staff also report a new baby giraffe.

Reticulated giraffe Bahatika recently became a father for the first time. A female giraffe, now named Poppy, was born May 27 to mom Marlee. This is her third calf. Poppy is named after the Remembrance Poppy, a symbol of Memorial Day weekend when the calf was born.

Each giraffe has a unique pattern of spots, much like a human fingerprint. They also have only seven bones in their neck, the same as most other mammals.

It may seem like they have more, zoo staff say, but the giraffe's neck bones are just much longer.

Visitors to the zoo can also view an interactive summer exhibit called Dino Don's Dragon Kingdom, sponsored by Sendik's Food Market.

The exhibit intends to let visitors enter an enchanting mythical world with more than 15 animatronic creatures.

The creatures range in size from 10 to 40 feet, including dragon with wildlife features that tie-in their existence to animals of the natural world and those on the brink of extinction today.

The exhibit is located outside, behind the Small Mammals building, and it requires admission of $3 per person.

Regular parking, ride, and concessions rates still apply with the reduced holiday zoo admission price.

Milwaukee County Zoo is open from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on July 4. Admission gates close 45 minutes prior to zoo closing time, and animal buildings close 15 minutes prior to zoo closing.

For more information, contact the zoo's Marketing and Communications Department at 414-256-5466.

Yes you 'can' take part in recycling cans in Juda for worthy causes

Zion and Oakley United Methodist Churches Youth Group members are continuing to collect aluminum cans for recycling. Their collection cage is located in the corner of the Bank of New Glarus parking lot on Walnut Street in Juda.

As of the end of June, the group has collected more than 2,200 pounds of cans and netted more than $1,200, according to Youth Group Leader Dennis Pflingsten. Money raised has been donated to the Fairbanks Alaska Rescue Mission, Care Net Pregnancy Center in Monroe, the UMCOR Ukraine Relief Project and the Stained-Glass Window Repair Fund for the church in Juda. Funds raised in July will be donated to the Juda School to help purchase extra supplies for students. Pflingsten reminds the public that only empty aluminum cans can be accepted in this fund drive, and no empty cat food cans, please. "Thank you to everyone who has given cans to help support these worthy causes," Pflingsten said in a release on the youth group fund drive.

Orfordville recall election results available at website

August primary candidate list and absentee voting link ready for Rock voters

Results for Tuesday's recall election in Orfordville should be easily accessed at www.co.rock.wi.us today, according to Rock County Clerk Lisa Tollefson.

Only Dennis Burtness filed nomination papers for election as Village Board President by the deadline of noon, Friday, June 24, Tollefson said in a county press release last week.

The village was set to hold the recall election for Village Board President yesterday, Tuesday, June 28.

A recall petition filed April 25 set the vote in motion to recall Gary Phillips, who was at the time Village Board President.

However, Phillips resigned from office the day that citizens filed the recall petition.

Burtness was then appointed Board President.

In consultation thereafter, the Wisconsin Elections Commission directed to proceed with the recall vote since the petition was filed and certified as complete and by state election law must then be held.

As the only candidate to file nomination papers, Burtness will be the only candidate appearing on the ballot in Orfordville.

There were no registered write-ins, Tollefson stated.

State awards 12 projects with Buy Local Grant funds

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP) announced 12 Wisconsin companies will receive a DATCP Buy Local, Buy Wisconsin Grant in 2022.

This is a competitive grant program, according to a DATCP press release, designed to strengthen Wisconsin's agriculture and food industries by helping farms and businesses more efficiently process, market, and distribute locally grown food products.

The grants provide consumers with access to more Wisconsin-grown food products, including organic vegetables, hops varieties, hazelnut products, locally grown grain, and other value-added products.

"We are pleased to offer these grant opportunities, which support the diverse sectors of Wisconsin agriculture and help Wisconsin communities gain access to more local foods," stated DATCP Secretary Randy Romanski, in the press release.

"The grants help reduce marketing, distribution, and processing hurdles that impede the expansion of sales of Wisconsin food products to local purchasers."

DATCP received 60 funding requests totaling more than $1.9 million. The grant recipients and their planned projects, totaling $300,000, are:

Blue Moon Community Farm, Stoughton, $10,000.
Expand capacity for fresh spring vegetable production, the protected growing area, and supply of produce to increase local purchasing.

Crimson Kitchen and Gardens, Watertown, $10,000.
Expand food product sales and make canned food available year round to create new jobs.

Downtown West Bend Association, West Bend, $10,000
Expand, promote, and add educational opportunities to the West Bend Farmers Market, which hosts 150 Wisconsin farmers.

Gander Family Farms, Beloit, $12,600
Develop marketing materials and purchase supplies for retail sales capacity expansion for a farm store.

Kenosha Common Markets, Kenosha, $11,000.
Create and expand economic opportunities for local farms and food processors through a new farmers market.

Manitowoc Area Visitor & Convention Bureau, Manitowoc, $8,000.
Partner with Manitowoc County to promote local food producers through the Wisconsin Coastal Food Trail, which helps more than 20 producers connect with the community and tourists.

Siren Shrub Company, Stevens Point, $31,200.
Produce products with Wisconsin farming partners and mixologists to develop and distribute recipes.

Telsaan Tea, Mount Horeb, $9,504.
Provide equipment and resources for small growers to process and package herbs.

Turners Fresh Market, Waupaca, $22,000.
Implement marketing plan
