Guild's day campers play to standing ovation, joyful crowd at revue in Monroe

By Tony Ends
 INTERIM EDITOR
 Family and friends packed the house last Friday night for Monroe Theatre Guild's (MTG) Day Camp 2022 Revue.

Skits, readings, and musical numbers played warmly to laughter and delight of all ages in the audience.

Trios and solos sang tunes from motion picture soundtracks and pop songs, from "Prince Ali" and "We don't talk about Bruno!" to "Never Gonna Give You Up" and "Castle on a Hill." Skits took on "The Day the Internet Died," and other hilarious challenges we face trying to get along in a cyber world, as if we all don't find just growing up and coping challenge enough.

All MTG day campers filled the stage for a concluding rendition of "A Million Dreams" from "The Greatest Showman," the 2017 winner of the Teen Choice Award for Choice Movie.

Spirits of the audience lifted hopefully out of so much uncertainty of the day, with 33 young souls singing their hearts out with such hope.

"...think of what the world could be, a vision of the one I see. A million dreams is all it's gonna take. Oh, a million dreams for the world we're gonna make."

The performance capped the guild's newly revived summer theatre Day Camp.

For 33 young people, ages 10 to 16, the revue served up remarkable acting results with just one week's preparation.

Taking part from all over Green County, the youth learned all about the "behind the scenes" world of theatre from some of MTG's most dedicated volunteers.

Jerry Bredeson, Dave Bristow, Lilly Cherney, Stephen Eliasson, Darren Grinnell, Trevor Klarer, Jules Leverton, Denise Plantenberg, Heather Smith, and Zeke Smith were duly saluted for contributing time and talent to the day campers' formation.

Katie Landmark and Joe Leverton directed the revue, and Jerry Bredeson managed the crew.

MTG kept true to its word not to share young people's names for publication.

Yet MTG facilities manager extraordinaire Denise Platenberg did share that a number of students took part in the day camp this year from Orfordville, also Monroe and surrounding townships, and Monticello, Brodhead, and even northern Illinois.

A Saturday afternoon repeat of the revue followed the Friday night performance in the guild's theatrical home, 910 16th Avenue, just off Courthouse Square in Monroe.

Next up for the guild is a production of "Little Shop of Horrors," Oct. 7 to 16, then "eLf the Musical," Dec. 1 to 11.

Monroe Theatre Guild is keeping live performance on the stage and in youthful souls, a public service worthy of public support.

Obituaries

CATHERINE CORRY BLAKEMORE

Catherine Corry Blakemore of Albany, Wisconsin, died on Wednesday, Aug. 3, 2022.

She was born Catherine Stewart Corry, the daughter of Home and Cornelia (Black Adams) Corry, on Dec. 21, 1933, in Springfield, Ohio.

She graduated from Laurel School in Shaker Heights, Ohio in 1951 and was a 1955 graduate of Wellesley College, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

She earned a Master of Arts degree in Economics from the University of Michigan in 1959 and a Master of Arts in Education from the University of Colorado-Denver in 1993.

In 1966 she married Francis Blakemore, from whom she was divorced in 1999.

From 1956 to 1966, she worked in Washington, D.C., performing research for the United States Congress at the Legislative Reference Service (now the Congressional Research Service).

In Denver, she did research for two organizations and in the 1990s taught at the Clayton Charter School and the Hope Center.

She was a book publisher (Adams-Pomeroy Press) and the author of 11 books in the areas of education and multiculturalism.

She enjoyed spending time with her family, friends, and pets; competitive race-walking; reading; being a fan of the Colorado Rockies, and the Denver Broncos; working with inner-city children; and serving as a church, community, classroom, and adult literacy volunteer.

In Albany, she headed the Albany Library Book Club, the Reuben's Run Committee, and the Downtown Revitalization Committee of the Albany Area Chamber of Commerce.

She is survived by her son, James (Grace) Blakemore of London, England; her daughter, Elizabeth Blakemore of Albany; her grandchildren, Eliza, Henry, and Annabelle Blakemore of London; her niece, Anne Corry of New York City.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, John Corry; her sister-in-law, Emily Corry; and her cousin Martha Corry and Walter Von Schmidt.

Funeral services at Albany United Methodist Church with Pastor Kelly Jahn officiating were held at 12:30 p.m. Monday, Aug. 8.

Burial was in Hillcrest Cemetery in Albany. A visitation was held from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Shriner Hager Gohlke Funeral Home is assisting the family. Condolences may be sent to the family at: shriner111.com.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to the Albertson Memorial Library in Albany or to the Wheat Ridge Presbyterian Church in Wheat Ridge, Colorado.

BRUCE A. WAGNER

Bruce A. Wagner, formerly of Brodhead, died peacefully at home surrounded by his family on Aug. 3, 2022.

He was born to Arthur F. Wagner and Elsie M. (Beckman) Wagner on Oct. 18, 1947.

He is survived by his wife Jo of 51 years; daughters Jenna (Tom) Tasto, and Dana (Griffin) Prochnow; grandchildren Landyn Tasto, Merrick Tasto, Harrison Prochnow, and Maizy Prochnow.

A celebration of life service will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, Aug. 18, with visitation at 10 a.m., and a luncheon to follow, at the United Congregational Church in Brodhead.

The D.L. Newcomer Funeral Home in Brodhead is assisting the family.

OLGA ZAVODNY

Olga Zavodny, 93, formerly of Brodhead, passed away on Aug. 1, 2022.

She was born on Jan. 9, 1929, in Chicago, Ill., the daughter of Daniel and Susan (Zeman) Panik.

She graduated from Harrison High School (Chicago) in January 1947. On Nov. 15, 1947, she married Milan Zavodny, she married Peter and Paul Lutheran Church.

She worked as a secretary for Official Airline Guides in Oak Brook, Ill., and upon retirement they made their home on Decatur Lake in Brodhead a permanent residence.

Olga was preceded in death by her parents; her three brothers, John (Edna) Panik, Steve (Mary) Panik, and Danny Panik; and her beloved husband, Milan Zavodny. She is survived by her three children, Sandra (John) Pianetto, Milan D. Zavodny, and Douglas (Karen) Zavodny; eight grandchildren, Natalie (John) Walker, Ryan (Becky) Pianetto, Cory Pianetto, David (Penelope) Zavodny, Mark (Zavodny), Sarah (David) Brienzo, Matt (Angel) Zavodny, and Blake Zavodny; and 13 great grandchildren.

A funeral service was held Tuesday, Aug. 9, at Saints Peter and Paul Lutheran Church in Riverside, Ill. Burial was at Woodlawn Cemetery (Forest Park, Ill.).

Memorials may be made to Saints Peter and Paul Lutheran Church, 250 Woodside Road, Riverside, Ill. 60546.

Rackow's recalls pork lard product

Rackow's Family Sausage in Juda last week issued a Class I recall for pork lard sold from its store.

The recalled product is pork lard in 4-lb. tubs purchased before Aug. 1.

A Class I recall is initiated based on evidence state inspectors collected during a routine inspection.

The Class I USDA classification is a health hazard situation in which there is a reasonable probability that using the product will cause serious, adverse health consequences or death, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) website.

Evidence shows that the product was not produced under a Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point (HACCP) food

New faces from new places at art fest during Covered Bridge Days

By Michele Benesh
WILDFLOWER ART FESTIVAL

Brodhead's eleventh annual Wildflower Art Festival will take place in Veterans Park during Covered Bridge Days on Saturday, Aug. 13, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

We are glad that so many artists choose to return to the Wildflower Art Festival year after year. They clearly like Brodhead and it is obvious that Brodhead likes them. This year we also are thrilled to host several new artists.

We are excited to welcome Jack Deberlin, from Madison (Up the Hill Woodworks), who designs and makes clocks, cutting boards, small furniture, and other items from 95% Wisconsin woods plus a few exotic species.

He says, "I enjoy seeing the natural beauty of the wood shining through."

Sun Prairie's glass artist Andrea Stilwell creates art and functional pieces from fused glass patterns and strip construction.

Coming from Wautoma, Rebecca Schumacher and Sharon Lorenz of "The Wired Whim" will be exhibiting wirework, metal work, and enamel art jewelry, including wire-wrapped Czech buttons, metalwork cuffs, earrings and rings.

Brodhead's own Stephani Hopwood (Phlox and Honeybee, LLC), will be offering "original vibrant canvas paintings full of bright colors and movement.

Each is hand painted and unique (no prints)" She states that her abstracts and imperfect florals are inspired by the freedom in nature.

Bringing her hand-weave beaded leather wrap bracelets and earrings, Lynda Wallis (Bracelet Luv) of Beloit uses "vintage tins, beads, ethnic and handmade repurposed beads from across the globe."

Guenevere Drewes (Golden Mark Art) of Fitchburg will exhibit her "geode-inspired paintings out of acrylic pour, resin stones, and glitter on wood canvas,

We hope to see everyone at the eleventh Wildflower Art Festival to greet these new artists and reconnect with returning ones.

We also invite everyone to attend this year's "Wildflower of Putnam Park" on Sunday, Aug. 14, at 10:30 a.m., when Paul Roemer will conduct a wildflower walk along the steep slope by the mill race – just south of the swimming pool.

The native plantings there grow more beautiful every year – learn all about them!

Free concerts featured for 2022

Madison County takes the Stoughton Trailers Stage from 7:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. on the first day of Brodhead's Covered Bridge Days, Friday, Aug. 12.

The city's signature annual event runs through Sunday, Aug. 14, featuring free concert performances thanks to Bank of Brodhead and Madison Partners

Madison County, a seven-piece country show band based in Madison, has evolved its high-energy, engaging show over the years to stay fresh and unique, according to a Brodhead Chamber of Commerce press release.

It has been voted Local Group of the Year, 9 years in a row at the Q106 Madison Country Music Awards and Favorite Local Group at the 96.3 Star Country Awards.

Madison County was named Country Artist of the Year at the Madison Area Music Association Awards and People's Choice Award Winner for 6 years at the Wisconsin Area Music Industry Awards. It was named Isthmus Readers Favorite Local Country Band and Madison Magazine's Madison BEST Local Band and Country Band, 6 years running.

Madison County has released three full CDs and been privileged to share the stage with many national artists over the years, including, Little Big Town, Sugarland, Montgomery-Gentry, Bake Shelton, Brantley Gilbert, Trace Adkins, Dierks Bentley, Keith Urban, Brad Paisley, Jake Owen, Thomas Rhett, Toby Keith, Travis Tritt, Gary Alan, Love and Theft, Neal McCoy, Rascal Flatts, Justin Moore, Chris Cagle, Phil Vassar, Bellamy Brothers, Joe Diffie, Dwight Yoakum, David Allan Coe and Alan Jackson.

At the fest in Brodhead on Saturday night, Aug. 13, the group SuperTuesday will rock the Stoughton Trailers stage from 7:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.

Originally formed in 1996 as a four-piece original alt-rock band, SuperTuesday cut its teeth performing around Madison at house parties, barns and loading docks.

While fine-tuning their music and good-times skills, the group's members eventually evolved into SuperTuesday in 1998, and they've been hosting some of the largest parties around Southern Wisconsin.

During that time, they've appeared in commercials, played in stadiums and coliseums, and had the opportunity to open for national artists such as Old Dominion, Thompson Square, Gloria, Phil Vasser, Jessica Andrews, Sawyer Brown, Emerson Drive, Kip Winger, the BoDeans, and even Tommy Tutone.

SuperTuesday band takes its cues from artists like Bon Jovi, Brothers Osborne, Journey, Michael Jackson, Little Big Town, Luke Bryan, Billy Idol, Pat Benatar, Pitbull, Poison, Bruno Mars, Guns N Roses, and Luke Combs.

Promoters characterize SuperTuesday as "drink-raising and dance-a-billy, taking funfest skills to the next level with tour-level, fully synchronized lighting and video show performances."

In addition to musical acts, Covered Bridge Days features activities at many different locations throughout Brodhead.

The many long-standing

Covered Bridge Days activities include Beer Garden, Vendor Market on the Downtown Square, Kids' Fun Run, Wildflower Art Festival, Horse Drawn Wagon Rides, Garden Club Display, Kelch Museum and Gypsy Air Tours, Pontoon Rides, Tractor Pull, Display & Drive, Model A Antique Car Display and Classic Car Show, Food Stands, Softball Tournament, Bean Bag Tournament, Chicken BBQ, and Wildflower Walk.

For a complete schedule of events and the latest updates, visit BrodheadChamber.com.

Green County sheriff's report

Green County Sheriff's Department released deputies' reports of the following incidents they recorded over the past week. All individuals arrested or cited in this account are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Deputies reported the following incidents:

Saturday, Aug. 6 Vehicle accident with injury

At approximately 3:42 p.m., deputies, along with the Monticello Fire Department, Albany EMS, and Belleville EMS, responded to the West 2600 block of County Highway C in the Town of Mt Pleasant for a single-vehicle crash.

Investigations found that a motorcycle driven by Wesley M Hartford, 58, of Darlington, was westbound on County Highway C when Hartford failed to negotiate a curve in the roadway. Hartford's motorcycle proceeded down a steep embankment.

Hartford and his passenger Dorothy J Hartford, 52, of Darlington sustained injuries and were transported for further medical attention. The motorcycle sustained moderate damage and was towed from the scene.

Vehicle accident with injury

At approximately 6:40 p.m., deputies, the Juda Fire Department, and Green County EMS, responded to the North 2000 block of Schindler Road in the Town of Jefferson for a report of a single-vehicle accident.

Investigations found that a vehicle driven by Kathryn A Reidenbach, 61, of Juda, was northbound on Schindler when Reidenbach advised becoming distracted and entered the West ditch. Reidenbach's vehicle then struck an embankment.

Reidenbach reported sustaining injury. She told deputies she had been wearing her seatbelt, and the airbags deployed. Reidenbach's vehicle sustained disabling damage and was towed from the scene. She was cited for Inattentive Driving.

Friday, Aug. 5 Warrant Arrest:

At approximately 1:34 p.m., deputies responded to the 2800 block of 6th Street in the City of Monroe, for a subject with an active warrant through the Probation and Parole Office.

Adam D Bliss, 40, of Monroe, was taken into custody on the warrant and incarcerated at the Green County Jail.

Tuesday, Aug. 2 Motor Vehicle Crash

At approximately 8:09 a.m., sheriff's deputies, the Albany Fire Department, and Brodhead EMS, responded to the N4400 block of County Highway F in the Town of Decatur for a report of a single-vehicle, roll over crash.

Investigation determined the operator, Michelle McCloud, 27 of Monroe, was traveling north on County F, when the vehicle drifted into the east gravel shoulder.

She over-corrected the vehicle back onto the roadway, causing her to enter the west ditch and overturning the vehicle.

She was assisted out of the vehicle, as it came to rest on its driver side.

She was not injured and she was wearing her seatbelt. There was no airbag deployment. The vehicle sustained disabling damage and was towed from the scene.

She was cited for Operating Without a Valid License and Deviation from Designated Lane. She was released with a future court date.

Vehicle crash with injury

At approximately 3:44 p.m., deputies, Monroe Rural Fire Department, and Monroe EMS, responded to the intersection of State Highway 69 and County Highway P in the Town of Clarno, for a report of a two-vehicle crash with injury.

Investigation determined the operator of a southbound vehicle, John G. Kruse, 58 of Monroe, was stopped in the roadway attempting to turn east on County Highway P. Another southbound vehicle, operated by Laderrick D. Coley, 26, of Freeport, Ill., crashed into the rear of his vehicle.

Kruse reported that he was wearing his seatbelt and sustained injuries. He was transported by private vehicle from the scene. His vehicle sustained disabling damage, but with no airbag deployment. It was towed from the scene.

Coley told deputies that he was wearing his seatbelt and sustained injuries. Coley was transported by Monroe EMS from the scene to be evaluated. His vehicle sustained disabling damage with airbag deployment, and it was towed from the scene.

Coley received citations for Failure to Maintain Control of his vehicle and Operating with a Suspended Registration. Coley was issued a future court date.

OWI Arrest –

At approximately 10:13 p.m., deputies conducted a traffic stop in the 600 block of East 9th Ave. in the City of Brodhead.

Investigation resulted in the operator, Akia D. Rutledge, 19 of Freeport, Ill., being arrested for Operating While Under the Influence of a restricted Controlled Substance. Rutledge was also cited for Possession of Marijuana, Following to Close, Speeding and Operating Without a Valid Driver's License. Rutledge was later released to a responsible party with a future mandatory court appearance.

Warrant Arrest

At approximately 10:36 PM, Deputies responded to the North 900 block of State Highway 69 in the Town of Clarno for a report of a car vs. deer crash.

After completing the crash investigation, it was found that the passenger in the vehicle, Kenneth Harris, 55, of Freeport, Ill., had two outstanding warrants through Winnebago County.

He was placed under arrest for the warrants and was transported to the Green County Jail pending his initial court appearance.

Monday, Aug. 1 Motor Vehicle Crash

At approximately 7:10 p.m., deputies, Green County EMS, and the Monroe Rural Fire Department responded to the West 5200 block of County Highway P in the Town of Clarno for a one vehicle roll-over crash.

Investigation determined the operator, Daryery J. Vallejos, 22, of Monroe, was traveling east when her vehicle entered the gravel shoulder of the roadway.

Vallejos overcorrected the vehicle, causing it to cross the roadway, go down an embankment, and overturn.

The vehicle came to a rest in a cornfield, sustaining disabling damage.

Vallejos and her three passengers all reported wearing their seatbelts and not being injured. There was no airbag deployment and the vehicle was towed from the scene.

Vallejos was cited for Operating Without a Valid License – 1st Offense, Operating Without Insurance and Failure to Maintain Control of her vehicle. Vallejos was released with a future court date.
