Monroe Clinic and Hospital Foundation generated a record-breaking $106,805 at its 17th Annual Golf Outing on Aug. 2 at the Monroe Golf Club.

Participation included a turnout of 140 golfers and 170 guests for dinner at the Ludlow Mansion Events.

“Throughout our history, this community has reinforced support for access to healthcare excellence for every person, especially those in need,” Jane Sybers, Monroe Clinic Foundation Executive Director, said. “Our event this year was record breaking, at over $106,000, providing the resources to continue to fulfill that Mission.”

Money raised at this year’s golf outing support local cardiology services and the Future of Healthcare Fund.

“Our Cardiac suite will keep patients close to their care teams, which provides an optimal patient experience,” explained Jane Curran-Meuli, President of SSM Health Monroe Hospital and Monroe Clinic Medical Group. “I am grateful for the generous community support for our providers, staff and especially our patients.”

The organizers also thanked Ace Sponsor, CG Schmidt, for its fourth-time sponsorship at the $10,000 level. Special recognition also to Ruda Toyota and Monroe Radio Shack as hole in one sponsors.

10 million doses and counting

More than 60% of Wisconsinites have completed their COVID-19 vaccine series

More than 10 million doses of COVID-19 vaccine have been administered in the State of Wisconsin, including over 2.5 million additional and booster doses, according to the Wisconsin Department of Health Services.

More than 60% of all Wisconsinites have completed their COVID-19 vaccine series and 35% have received an additional or booster dose.

“Wisconsin’s vaccine providers have worked tirelessly these past few years, and we’ve been proud over the course of this pandemic to be a national leader in getting available shots in arms,” Evers said. “This is a tremendous milestone, and we couldn’t have gotten here without the hard work and dedication of everyone involved. Whether you’re administering shots, scheduling appointments, answering phones, or sanitizing workstations – thank you.”

Data continue to show that COVID-19 vaccines are doing their job by preventing severe illness, hospitalization, and death. In June, people who were unvaccinated were hospitalized at a rate nearly five times that of people who had been vaccinated with a primary series only, and 2.5 times the rate of those who had received their primary series and booster dose.

Additionally, people who were unvaccinated died at a rate 6.4 times the rate of people who had been vaccinated with a primary series only, and 3.5 times the rate of those who had received their primary series and booster dose. DHS continues to recommend the use of COVID-19 vaccines and boosters to prevent severe illness and death. For maximum protection, DHS urges all Wisconsinites to get a booster dose as soon as they become eligible. COVID-19 therapeutics are also effective at preventing the severity of the virus if you do test positive.

Wisconsinites continue to have a number of options for COVID-19 vaccination. To find a vaccine provider in your community, visit vaccines.gov (link is external). Options for COVID-19 vaccination will also be expanding soon. In about two weeks, this will include the recently-authorized Novavax COVID-19 vaccine. The Novavax vaccine joins Pfizer, Moderna and Johnson and Johnson as vaccines that adults 18 years and older can receive for COVID-19. The protein-based Novavax COVID-19 vaccine offers an alternative to the current mRNA (Pfizer and Moderna) and viral vector (Johnson and Johnson) vaccines. Protein-based vaccines have been used for decades, including for influenza, hepatitis B, and shingles.

After successful clinical trials and a rigorous review of all available data, the Food and Drug Administration issued Novavax’s request for an emergency use authorization for use of its vaccine in adults 18 years and older on July 13.

On July 19, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention director confirmed the vaccine is safe and recommended the vaccine to this age group. People who want a Novavax vaccine may need to schedule an appointment to have it administered due to its short shelf life, and they are encouraged to check with their local health clinics, provider or visit vaccines.gov to find vaccination sites.

“As we monitor cases and hospitalizations due to COVID-19 across Wisconsin, we urge those who are unvaccinated or eligible for booster doses to get vaccinated now,” said DHS Secretary-designee Karen Timberlake. “COVID-19 vaccination remains a critical tool to help you, your family, and your community from getting COVID-19 and its complications.”

COVID-19 vaccines remain available to all Wisconsinites at no cost regardless of immigration or health insurance status. People can schedule an appointment for the vaccine using a variety of options, including with their health care provider at community-based vaccination clinics, local and tribal health departments, or pharmacies.

Vaccination sites across Wisconsin may choose to provide vaccines to specific age groups. Wisconsinites are encouraged to check with their local health clinics or visit vaccines.gov to find vaccination sites for specific age groups.

Stateline Community Foundation donates gas cards to DEFY

The Women's Fund of the Stateline Community Foundation has donated 34 gas cards to Defy Domestic Abuse Beloit, to help their clients with the increased cost of transportation. Each of the cards is worth $15.

The donation of gas cards is especially appreciated at this time, according to Kelsey Hood Christenson, Program Director at DEFY.

"This is such a wonderful time for this donation as the increase in gas prices have really reduced how far our current transportation assistance goes," she said.

DEFY provides clients with bus tokens, bus passes, and gas cards to assist with transportation. In some cases, the nonprofit provides cab fare or direct transportation by one of the agency's advocates.

A community-based domestic violence advocacy center, DEFY provides emergency shelter along with a network of services including financial planning, parenting support, therapy and counseling, legal advocacy, and community outreach. DEFY is part of Family Services of Southern Wisconsin & Northern Illinois.

In addition to DEFY Domestic Abuse Beloit, Family Services includes the Individual & Family Counseling Program, Sexual Assault Recovery Program, Praxis Employee Assistance Program, Youth2Youth 4 Change, and The Neighborhood Resilience Project.

Family Services is a funded partner of United Way Blackhawk Region, United Way of Green County, and the Community Foundation of Southern Wisconsin.

The mission of Family Services of Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois, Inc. is to restore, sustain, and enhance the lives of members of the community by providing an array of empowering services that focus on prevention, advocacy, case management, education, counseling and therapy.

Dragons on the Rock returns Sept. 17

KANDU Industries opens race team registration and sponsorship opportunities

KANDU Industries Inc., a organization that provides programs and services to people with disabilities and disadvantages, announced today that it will host its third annual Dragons on the Rock dragon boat race and festival fundraiser on Saturday, Sept. 17, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Traxler Park in Janesville.

The dragon boat race includes teams of 16-20 paddlers and one drummer in each boat, competing in heats throughout the day to determine the top three champions. All equipment and training are provided, as well as experienced staff to steer each boat, so no prior experience is necessary. Race winners will receive medals and recognition during an afternoon award ceremony. Team drummers will have the opportunity to compete for prizes by showing off their costumes and talents during a spirited drum competition.

"We received so much positive feedback after last year's event," said Linda Diedrich, Kandu's director of marketing, "particularly from the nineteen race teams who brought their A-game to everything from fundraising to a fierce competitive spirit in the race that made for a really effective team-building exercise and entertaining show. We hope more Rock County companies will give Dragons on the Rock a look this year. It's a great low-cost team-building exercise, generates a lot of brand exposure, and provides employees with a sense of pride for getting involved in the community and supporting a non-profit."

Registration for teams participating in the boat race is open now. Several sponsorship opportunities are available for businesses, as well as volunteer opportunities for individuals willing to lend their support for this lively community event.

In addition to the boat races, the festival includes live music, a beer tent, family-friendly activities and games, a keg toss competition, and plenty of food and drink vendors to round out the full line-up of events. Attendees are invited to cheer on their favorite dragon boats, grab a bite to eat from a local food truck, and immerse themselves in the community at Dragons on the Rock 2022.

Admission to the festival is free and all profits go toward KANDU's mission to create, promote and provide diverse opportunities offering people with disabilities or disadvantages the ability to pursue greater independence and explore their limitless potential.

Major sponsors of this year's event include Kerry, Charter Next Generation, and the Gary Bersell Endowment Fund.

Albany Riverfest event targets carp

There's a bounty out for carp that are robbing the Sugar River of its natural game fish.

The Lake Winnetka/Sugar River Improvement Association Inc. will hold its annual Carp Fishing Contest as part of Albany Riverfest in Albany from Friday, Aug. 19 - Sunday, Aug. 21.

There will be two categories of prizes for the most carp caught regardless of size. The first category will be for bow fishermen only. The second category for the most carp caught will be for all other types of fishing including hook and line, spear, and hand fishing. Seine netting is not allowed.

Prizes awarded in both categories will be first $50, second $25, third $15, fourth $10 and fifth $5. There will be one bonus $50 prize for the largest carp caught in any manner determined by weight. This means that if you win for the most carp in your category and also have the largest, you could win $100 total. There will also be two fishing gear prizes for contestants 10 years old and younger.

No registration is required to compete in the contest, but participants must have a valid Wisconsin-fishing license.

Qualifying carp must be caught from the Sugar River in Albany or on the millpond (Lake Winnetka) upstream of the Albany Dam. The shallow muddy areas of the lake are where many carp hide out.

The goal of the contest, according to organizers, is to provide a fun way to help game fish proliferate by removing as many Carp as possible.

Participants may start fishing anytime on Friday Aug. 19, and fish all weekend. On both Friday and Saturday by the Albany Boat Ramp there will be a carp count and weigh in at 5 p.m. The contest ends at 5 p.m. on Sunday. Prizes will be awarded in the park by the Albany boat ramp.

For more information call 608-862-1698 or 773-418-7123 or email lwsria@aol.com.

Rock residents invited to search local waters for invasive species

Water lovers of all ages are invited to help Rock River Coalition search for aquatic invasive species (AIS) on Snapshot Day, which is happening Saturday, Aug. 20, at Kiwanis Pond in Janesville. Snapshot Day is designed to be a fun, hands-on, and educational opportunity for people interested in learning how they can become better stewards of our waters. While the statewide event is entering its ninth year, this is the first time Rock River Coalition will be hosting Snapshot Day in Rock County.

"It's one of my favorite days of the year," says Addie Schlüssel, Rock River Coalition's Stream Monitoring and AIS Coordinator. "Teaching people to recognize aquatic invasive species is one of the most important and rewarding parts of my job. People want to help, and we're empowering them to do so." Participants will learn about invasive species, the harm they cause, and what they can do about it. Last year, over 150 volunteers across the state rolled up their sleeves to monitor at more than 200 sites!

Snapshot Day is coordinated in partnership by UW-Madison Division of Extension, River Alliance of Wisconsin, and the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. Information collected will be provided to the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (WDNR) to inform and guide monitoring and response efforts. Volunteers are key to the success of the event. By hosting Snapshot Day in Rock County, Rock River Coalition is joining a larger network of over 20 conservation organizations.

Coordination of this event is made possible with generous support from WDNR through an Aquatic Invasive Species Education, Planning and Prevention grant.

No experience is necessary, and training is provided both at the event and virtually ahead of time. This is a free event. Recommended for ages eight and up, but minors must be accompanied by an adult.

Please register by Aug. 14 and see all event details at waterandvolunteers.org/events. Email addie@rockrivercoalition.org with any questions.
