Vote with confidence on Nov. 8

Early Voting In-Person Absentee

Election Day is Nov. 8. However, you can cast your ballot for the November election now with early voting options by mail and in-person.

Choose the option best for you and be sure you have a plan to vote. Then, help other voters to do the same.

It is not an exaggeration to say that this election is one of the most important and consequential in our lifetime. Elections in Wisconsin are almost always closely contested and every vote matters.

Make sure you're registered to vote at your current address

Go to MyVote.wi.gov, and enter your name and date of birth to check your voter registration status.

You need to have lived at your current address for at least 28 days prior to Election Day in order to register to vote in that election district or ward.

If you find out that you are not already registered to vote at your current residence, you can still register:

In your Municipal Clerk's Office

You can register in-person in your municipal clerk's office up until the close of business on the Friday before the election in which you are planning to vote.

For the fall election, the last day to register in your clerk's office is next Friday, Nov. 4. You will need to bring a proof of residence document to complete your registration (this document can be shown electronically). Your clerk: myvote.wi.gov/en-us/My-Municipal-Clerk.

At the Polls Election Day

If you're unable to register before the election, you can still register at your polling place on Election Day - Nov. 8. You will need to present a proof of residence document when registering (again, this document can be shown electronically).

If your Wisconsin driver's license or state ID card has your current address, that's all you need.

Examples of proof of residence documents are at elections.wi.gov/resources/brochures/proof-residence-voter-registration.

Casting an absentee ballot / early voting

Municipalities could begin In Person Absentee Voting ("early voting") Oct. 25, and must conclude by Sunday, Nov. 6.

To find out where and when you can cast an early, in-person absentee ballot in your city/town/village, contact your local municipal clerk's office. In-person early voting dates and times vary by municipality, and you can see your options at MyVote by clicking on "Vote Absentee" and filling in your information.

Then click on the "Find my local absentee options" button to see your in-person early voting options.

If you requested a mailed absentee ballot, return it as soon as possible. Track your ballot through the official ballot tracker on MyVote. You can drop the completed ballot off at your clerk's office.

After a break of more than 2 years due to the pandemic, the Monroe Swiss Singers will return to the Grand Hall stage at the Turner Hall of Monroe this Sunday, Nov. 6, for the group's 54th annual Swissfest.

Monroe Swiss Singers return to Turner Hall

Turner Hall of Monroe's Grand Hall has been largely void of Swiss folk music and traditions for almost 3 years.

Yet all that will change this Sunday, Nov. 6, at 2 p.m., when the Monroe Swiss Singers will host its 54th Annual Swissfest.

Sharing the stage and program along with the Monroe Swiss Singers are two other Green County staples, the Männerchor New Glarus and the Jodlerklub New Glarus.

Alphorns, accordions, Swiss-coin rolling, Swiss flag-throwing and yodeling, all perennial favorites, will again be part of the show.

When the Monroe Swiss Singers held its first Swissfest in November 1963, the 19 charter members at that time probably never dreamed the event would still be going strong almost 60 years later. Although some of the faces in both the mixed choir and the audience have changed over the years, the Monroe Swiss Singers' annual trademark event remains synonymous with quality Swiss folk music and entertainment, all for the sake of carrying on the traditions and culture brought to Monroe and south-central Wisconsin by its Swiss forbears.

The pandemic proved to be a very challenging time for everyone, particularly singing groups.

It wasn't until mid-June of this year that the Monroe Swiss Singers once again resumed rehearsals, but with masking and other health safety protocols in place.

Special acts this year will include New Glarus yodeler, Nancy Streiff, accompanied on accordion by David Austin, and the Chörli Edelweiss, a small vocal ensemble that was formed to perform at New Glarus' 175th anniversary in 2021.

The program will also pay tribute to four members of the Monroe Swiss Singers who have passed on since the last Swissfest.

They include Martha Bernet, Ernie Halbheer, Gisela Halbheer, and Jackie Hennager-Schmitz. All but Hennager-Schmitz were charter members, with Bernet and Ernie Halbheer being natives of Switzerland, and Gisela Halbheer, of Germany.

Monroe has had a long history of Swiss choral groups, primarily men's yodel quartets and choirs, dating from the late 1800s.

The immediate predecessor of the Monroe Swiss Singers was the Swiss Club Men's Chorus, which was established in 1958.

Due to dwindling membership, female voices were added in February of 1963 and the group came to be known as the Gemischter Chor Monroe.

In 1968, the name was officially changed to the Monroe Swiss Singers. Of the original 19 charter members, all except one were native Swiss.

Deborah Krauss Smith, whose paternal grandmother, Emma Schär Krauss, was a Swiss native from canton Aargau, has directed the group since 1985.

She is also a direct descendant of Jacob and Elsbeth Stauffacher, two of the original New Glarus colonists of 1845. Previous directors included Edwin Schuetze (1963 - 1966), Christian Gafner (1966 - 1971), Betty Koehler (1971 - 1976) and Marie Power (1976 - 1985).

The group has won many first-place awards in competition

Red Cross pre-holiday blood drives set in Green, Rock counties

State staff of the American Red Cross asked last week that blood donors of all types and those who have never given before take a time to donate blood ahead of the holiday season. Red Cross staff expressed concern that the blood supply maintain levels needed going through the end of the year and into January. People of all blood types are needed, especially platelets and those with type O blood, the Red Cross stated in a press release. The latter blood types being sought are crucially important to blood products that keep hospitals ready to help patients who depend on transfusions. Prospective donors can use the Red Cross donor app, visit RedCrossBlood.org, or call 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767). Those who come to designated or scheduled blood donation site between Nov. 1 and Nov. 22 will receive a $10 e-gift card by email to a merchant of choice. Details on this incentive are at rcblood.org/perks. Another way the Red Cross is asking for public support is for people to become a volunteer blood donor ambassador for Red Cross blood drives. Blood donor ambassadors help greet, check-in and thank blood donors to ensure they have a positive donation experience. Volunteers can also serve as transportation specialists, delivering blood products to nearby hospitals. For more information and to apply for a volunteer position, contact VolunteerWisconsin@redcross.org or visit www.redcross.org/volunteertoday. When giving blood, a donor card or driver's license, or two other forms of identification are required at check-in. Eligibility also requires that donors be 17 years of age in most states (16 with parental consent where allowed by state law), weigh at least 110 pounds, and be in generally good health. High school students and other donors 18 years of age and younger also have to meet certain height and weight requirements. Blood and platelet donors can save time at their next donation by using RapidPass® to complete their pre-donation reading and health history questionnaire online, on the day of their donation, before arriving at the blood drive. To get started, follow the instructions provided at RedCrossBlood.org/RapidPass or use the Blood Donor App. American Red Cross shelters, feeds and provides comfort to victims of disasters. It supplies about 40% of the nation's blood. It also teaches skills that save lives; distributes international humanitarian aid; and supports veterans, military members and their families. The Red Cross is a nonprofit organization that depends on volunteers and donations from the American public to fulfill its mission. Upcoming blood donation opportunities are scheduled through Nov. 25 and include:

Janesville church hosts live performance by CLIMB on Alzheimer's awareness

In partnership with the ADRC of Rock County, CLIMB Theatre presents their Alzheimer's awareness play, "Grandpa and Lucy," live at Asbury United Methodist Church on Wednesday, Nov. 16.

There will be a pizza dinner starting at 5:30 p.m., followed by the performance at 6:30 p.m. At the conclusion of the play, an open discussion session will be facilitated by CLIMB.

November is Alzheimer's Awareness Month and CLIMB is helping spread awareness with their play, "Grandpa and Lucy," based on the children's book by Edie Weinstein.

Starting as a Girl Scout Silver Award project, Edie wrote the book as a ninth-grader. CLIMB Artistic Director Anton Jones then adapted the book into CLIMB's play version which first toured in 2019.

This play aims to help kids and parents strengthen their intergenerational relationships with older relatives who may be struggling with Alzheimer's disease or other forms of dementia.

"I hope people see the ways in which a young person can be educated and comforted in the face of a grandparent moving into a form of dementia," said Buffy Sedlachek, director of Grandpa and Lucy.

"What we really want to do is be in the moment, whatever the moment is with the person who is losing their memory."

This event is free and open to the public and is great for an intergenerational audience, ages 5 and up.

Reservations are required. To register call 608-741-3615.

Through the ADRC, everyone in Rock County also has free access to CLIMB's online platform of additional resources, including an animated version of the play, fun activities and supplemental curriculum.

To sign up or log into an existing account, visit this link: climb-theatre.mykajabi.com/intergenerational-digital-wi.

To make reservations or for more information about dementia care specialist services and programs, please contact Karen Tennyson at 608-741-3615.

CLIMB Theatre is a youth-centered organization that uses theatre to teach social-emotional learning in a way that is intentionally intersectional.

Based out of Inver Grove Heights, Minn., the touring company brings programming to schools, libraries, and beyond across the Midwest. Their mission is to inspire and propel people towards acts that benefit themselves, others, and their community. Grandpa and Lucy is a part of their efforts to forge intergenerational connections and support young people within the community.

Orfordville won't video tape regular meetings

By Sherri Waege
VILLAGE CLERK
Village President Dennis Burtness called the Oct. 24 regular meeting to order with Chuck Boyce, Beth Schmidt, Cami Myers-Alstat, Nikki Tuffree, Terry Gerber, and Jason Knox in attendance.

Also present were Village Attorney Mike Hahn, Village Police Chief Jeremiah Burdick, Department of Public Works Director Nick Todd, and Clerk Sherri Waege.

Beth Schmidt advised those present of a Splash Pad meeting at the Village Hall on Oct. 25.

Terry Gerber said that they Lutfisk Dinner at the Orfordville Lutheran Church was very successful, with 500 people fed, including many visitors to the village.

Video Taping Meetings

Burtness met with John Thomson from the Footville Church of Christ regarding videotaping meetings for public view.

Burtness said that the Church is in a different position than the village as they do not have any storage requirements.

He said for the village to offer videotaped meetings would require an expense of a new computer, storage space, and possible software cost.

He said the village would have to have someone here to operate the equipment during the meetings.

Gerber said he didn't believe there would be enough people to view the taped meetings to justify the expense.

Gerber said the City of Janesville and Janesville School District offer this and have little attendance.

Schmidt said Rock County Board also offers the service and has very few people who take advantage of it.

Burtness said he didn't think the few who requested it justified the cost to do it.

Gerber said he would consider it if it became necessary in another pandemic situation.

Motion by Gerber, seconded by Myers-Alstat to deny the request to video tape meetings for public view.

Roll Call Vote: Boyce and Knox, No; Schmidt, Myers-Alstat, Tuffree, Gerber, and Burtness, Yes. Motion carried.

Mobil food vendor form

Discussion was held on listing locations on the applications.

Motion by Boyce, seconded by Gerber to approve the application with two changes: remove the last bullet point on the first page requesting additional locations be listed on the back and to also list one space for the location being requested.

Motion carried.

Operator Licenses

Burdick said all seven license applications were recommended for approval.

Motion by Gerber, seconded by Schmidt to accept the Police Committee Recommendation to approve Operator Licenses to expire June 30, 2023

Heather Higgenbotham, Cassady Loveridge, Heidi Swartz Melton, Charysma Mould, Addison Olson, Broke Schoon, and Erin Turner.

Motion carried.

Police promotion

Burtness said Senior Officer Mike Rufer has been very helpful and is a great contributor to the village. Tuffree said the title will reflect the duties and hierarchy for Senior Officer Rufer that is already in place.

Burdick said Rufer has already received the additional responsibilities and pay increase. Burdick further said that a one-time increase of $300 for uniform allowance is needed to pay for the new badge and the chevrons for the uniform.

Motion by Boyce, seconded by Tuffree to accept the Police Committee recommendation to promote Senior Officer Mike Rufer to Sergeant and to increase the uniform allowance by $300 for Rufer to purchase a new badge and uniform chevrons. Motion carried.

Knox asked if the village would get the equipment back in the event Rufer were to leave.

Burdick said the badge would be returned to the village as it is village property.

Tuffree said Rufer started with the village under former Chief David Wickstrum in 2015. He resigned briefly in December 2021. He returned to the Village in April 2022.

"For 7 years, Sgt. Rufer has faithfully served the Village of Orfordville," Tuffree said. "I'd like to thank him for his involvement with the school and youth of this community, his time as a court officer, and his all-around positive attitude."

Rufer was not able to attend as he was working a second shift in the Village of Clinton.

Mobil Food Service

Attorney Mike Hahn provided an updated revision of the village ordinance using Burtness' suggestions from the last meeting.

Additional changes will require those operating on their private property to get permission from adjoining land owners for landowners with 100 feet of their property.

Changes in location will require a three-day notice as well.

Additional language will state the Village Clerk can issue the permit after review from the Police and Fire Departments.

Hahn advised the board that they will still need to issue a resolution, with a map, that lists the locations where food trucks can operate in the village.

Motion by Tuffree, seconded by Schmidt to table to the Nov. 14 meeting to allow time for Hahn to revise the ordinance. Motion carried.

Resolution R-2022-18 Election Board

Waege said she added Lois Conradson and Glen Johnson to the Election Board. Motion by Tuffree, seconded by Gerber to amend R-2022-18 to add Lois Conradson and Glen Johnson to the Election Board. Motion carried.

Short Term Parking

Todd will get the information to Hahn. Motion by Tuffree, seconded by Boyce to table to the Nov. 14 meeting. Motion carried.

Treasurer Report

Knox asked about some older items that have not cleared the account. Waege said two of them were from the Audit Entries that she would like to review with the auditor. Motion by Tuffree, seconded by Schmidt to approve the September, 2022 Treasurer Report. Motion carried.

Vouchers

Motion by Gerber, seconded by Schmidt to approve the vouchers for $59,970.23 with a check range of 34965-34987. Motion carried.
